The person receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected.

Section 4. "Removal" -- Any director may be removed from the Board, with or without cause, by a majority vote of the members of the Association, or a majority vote of the Board. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board. Such resignation shall take effect on the date of receipt of such notice or at any later time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5. "Vacancies" -- A vacancy in any office may be filled by appointment of the Board.
The officer appointed to such vacancy shall serve for the remainder of the term the officer replaces.

Section 6. "Powers" -- The Board shall have the power to:
1. Adopt and publish rules and regulations governing the use of the common area and facilities, and the personal conduct of the members and their guests thereon, and to establish penalties for each infraction thereof.
2. Suspend the voting rights and right to use of the recreational facilities of a member during any period in which such members shall be in default in the payment of any assessment levied by the Association.
3. Exercise for the Association all powers, duties and authority vested in or delegated to this Association and not reserved to the membership by other provisions of these By-Laws, the Articles of Incorporation, or the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions.
4. Employ a manager, an independent contractor, or such other employees as they deem necessary, and to prescribe their duties.

Section 7. "Duties" -- It shall be the duty of the Board to:
1. Cause to be kept a complete record of all its acts and corporate affairs, and to present a statement thereof to the members at their meetings, or at any special meeting when such statement is requested in writing by one-fourth (1/4) of all homeowners.
2. Supervise all officers, agents and employees of the Association, and to see that their duties are properly performed.
3. As more fully provided in the Declaration and Policy #1, to (1) fix the amount of the annual assessment against each lot at least thirty (30) days in advance of each annual assessment period; (2) send written notice of each assessment to every owner and (3) in the event of non-payment proceed with the guidelines established in Policy #1.
4. Procure and maintain adequate liability and hazard insurance on property owned by the Association.
5. Cause the common areas to be maintained.

Section 8. "Meetings" -- The Board shall meet at the discretion of the president and/or ¾ of the Board.

Section 9. "Action Taken without a Meeting" -- The Board shall have the right to take any action in the absence of a meeting which they could take at a meeting, by obtaining unanimous approval of the Board. Any action so approved shall have the same effect as though taken at a meeting of the directors.

Section 10. "Special Appointments" -- The Board of may appoint such other committee chairpersons as the affairs of the Association may require, each of whom shall hold office for such period, have such authority, and perform such duties as the Board may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE IX - COMMITTEES AND THEIR DUTIES

Section 1. "Committees" -- All committees of the Association shall be appointed by the Board of Directors. They will retain their position until they resign, are terminated by the action of the Board or the position is abolished by the Board.

Section 2. "Duties" -- The duties of the committee chairpersons are as follows:

1. "Special Events Committee" -- The committee shall be responsible for the planning, preparation and oversight of Sugarland neighborhood events. They shall be responsible for the organization and delegation of volunteers to help with these events. They shall schedule, organize and advertise for the annual Neighborhood Garage Sale; shall organize and advertise for the annual Christmas Lighting contest. It shall be the duty of the events coordinator to organize, plan and oversee other calendar events that may include, but are not limited to the following: Fall Family Day and July 4th in the Park. They shall assume responsibility for the production of an informative handout and or advertising as deemed necessary by the Board for these events.

2. "Newsletter Editor and Assistant" -- They shall produce a minimum of 3 newsletters yearly. Information for publication shall be gathered from the Board and committee members. After preparation of the newsletter is completed, it shall be given to the president for final approval. Upon approval the newsletter is taken by the editor for the printing process. It is then folded by the editor and then given to the assistant to affix mailing labels prepared by the treasurer. For step-by-step preparation guidelines, refer to editor’s notebook.

3. "Shelter House Committee" -- The committee shall schedule use of all park/shelter house facilities. The park/shelter house usage is restricted to members in good standing only. The committee shall check with the treasurer to verify no outstanding account balances, followed by verifying/coordinating with special events committee on availability of park/shelter houses. The person/persons reserving the area will sign a responsibility/liability form which will be kept on file with the shelter house committee. It shall be the duty of the committee to hold keys to the water pumps and unlock them when needed, store and provide game equipment to reserve, coordinate mowing/grounds needs for reserved area, and inform the board of directors of scheduled events. The requesting party is responsible for cleanup after their event.

4. "Architectural Review Board" -- The architectural review board will consist of three or more persons. They will govern compliance with Restrictions and Covenants filed of record and the By-Laws and Policies relating to the use of land or improvements within the properties. One ARB member is requested to come to all board and Home Owners Association meetings. It will be up to the ARB committee to decide who is going to attend. Members of the ARB will communicate any approvals for work done in the development to the board through e-mail within 48 hours of approval.
5. “Nominating Committee” -- The nominating committee shall consist of a chairman, who shall be a member of the Board and two members of the Association. The Nominating Committee shall make as many nominations for election to the Board as shall in its discretion determine, but not less than the number of vacancies that are to be filled. Such nominations must be made from among the membership.

6. “Ponds Committee” -- The ponds committee shall be responsible for the oversight of Sugarland ponds. This includes but is not limited to clean up, vegetation growth, chemical applications, and any other pond improvement and its planning. They shall schedule and organize a yearly pond improvement day. They shall arrange for stocking ponds with fish. The Pond Committee shall keep the Board informed of their plans.

7. “Grounds Committee” -- The grounds committee shall be responsible for soliciting contracts for mowing, tree trimming and tree removal from the common areas and oversee all work done. They shall oversee maintenance of the walking trails, shelter house and common areas. They will communicate with residents about planned improvements in the common areas. The grounds committee shall keep the Board informed of their plans.

8. “Welcoming Committee” -- The welcoming committee will keep an updated list of all homes currently for sale in Sugarland Estates. This will allow the committee to welcome new neighbors in a timely fashion. They will personally greet all new home owners and provide them with a copy of the Home Owner’s Manual, along with a small gift upon moving into their new home. They will also update and edit the Home Owner’s Manual as needed.

ARTICLE X - POLICIES AND REGULATIONS

Section 1. “Enforcement” -- The Board may from time to time create and promulgate policies and regulations as hereafter provided to govern the use of the common area and facilities, the conduct of members and their guests, and compliance with the Declarations filed of record relating to the use of land or improvements within the properties, the control of architecture within the properties, or other measures necessary to insure the health, safety and welfare of the residents. The rules and regulations shall be effective ten (10) days after notice of enactment is mailed to members.

Section 2. “Sanctions” -- Members violating duly promulgated policies and regulations shall be subject to sanctions in accordance with the terms and provisions of such policies and regulations. Such sanctions may include, but are not limited to, suspension of membership, the right to use or enjoy the common area, and the assessment of fines per SEHOA Policies.

Section 3. “Right of Appeal” -- Members shall have the “Right to Appeal” following the notice of any infraction or fine. Such appeal must be made in writing and will be heard by the Board at its next meeting. If no appeal is requested, within the time stated in the applicable SEHOA policy, or after the preliminary decision by the Board, said decision shall become final.
ARTICLE XI - ASSESSMENTS & DUES

See Policy #1 and Policy #2.

ARTICLE XII - SALARIES

The Board shall hire and fix the compensation of any and all employees which they in their discretion may determine to be necessary for conducting the business of the association.

ARTICLE XIII - INDEMNIFICATION

Every officer shall be indemnified by the Association against all reasonable costs, expenses and liabilities (including counsel fees) actually and necessarily incurred or imposed upon him in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding, investigation or inquiry of whatever nature in which he may be involved, as a party or otherwise, by reason of having been an officer of the Association, whether or not he continues to be such an officer at the time of the incurrence or imposition of such costs, expenses or liabilities, except in relation to matters in which he shall finally be adjudged in such action, suit, proceeding, investigation or inquiry to be liable for willful misconduct or negligence toward the Association in the performance of his duties, or in absence of adjudication, such liability by opinion of legal counsel selected by the Association. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to and not in limitation of all rights to which such persons may be entitled as a matter of law, and shall be inured to the benefit of the legal representatives of each person.

ARTICLE XIV - EXPENDITURES & BIDS

Any expenditure over $1500 will require at least 2 bids. Anything under will not require bids.

The board may approve expenditures up to $5000. Two board members must sign all checks. Expenses over $1500 require all four board members signatures on the expense voucher/bill. Anything over $7500 will be brought before a general meeting of the Sugarland Estates Home Owners Association for a vote with the proposed expenditure listed in the newsletter.

ARTICLE XV - AMENDMENTS

These by-laws may be altered, amended, repealed or added to by an affirmative vote of not less than 3/4 of the Board or by calling a Special Meeting per Article IV, Section 2. In case of any conflict between the Articles of Incorporation and these By-Laws, the Articles of Incorporation shall control; and in the case of any conflict between the Declarations and these By-Laws, the Declarations shall control.

ARTICLE XVI - POLICIES

A policy provides a more detailed description of a by-law. A policy may be altered, amended, repealed or added to by an affirmative vote of not less than 3/4 of the Board or by calling a Special Meeting per Article IV, Section 2. In case of any conflict between the Articles of Incorporation and these By-Laws, the Articles of Incorporation shall control; and in the case of any conflict between the Covenants and these By-Laws, the Covenants shall control.
ARTICLE XVII - BOOKS AND RECORDS

The books, records and papers of the Association shall be subject to inspection by any member. The Covenants, the Articles of Incorporation, and the By-Laws of the Association shall be available for inspection by any member upon written request of the Board.
